

English for Diplomats and the International Sector

Develop a well-rounded set of English skills to achieve Global success

Framework	Programme Summary	Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 17.5 hours per week in groups of up to 4 students</li><li>• 10 hours per week in individual lessons</li><li>• Courses from 1 to 52 weeks with a Monday start</li></ul>	Gain fluency and confidence in oral production and presentations Succeed at an international level, understanding idioms, accents and body language Improve professional writing skills Learn approaches for discussing current affairs with tact and neutrality	This course practises English skills needed by Diplomats: fine tuned, concise and sensitive to small nuances in body language and vocabulary. A great emphasis is placed on presentation and negotiation skills, especially in formal situations. Diplomatic skills including analysis, problem solving, persuasion and relationship building are vital to the professional field and are practised in realistic staged scenarios throughout the course.